RESUME OF WILLIAM BARDWELL ZELENY

William B. Zeleny was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in 1934. He attended the University of Maryland, where he majored in mathematics and received the degree of Bachelor of Science with Special Honors in Mathematics in June, 1956.

Entering Syracuse University, New York, as a graduate student in physics, he received the Master of Science degree in June, 1958, and the Ph.D. degree in June, 1960. His research consisted of theoretical work in quantum field theory and elementary particles, and was under the direction of Professor A. O. Barut. During his final year at Syracuse, he was a National Science Foundation Summer Fellow and a National Science Foundation Cooperative Graduate Fellow.

In August, 1960, he was appointed Temporary Lecturer of Physics in the School of Physics at the University of Sydney, in Sydney, Australia, where he was lecturer in quantum field theory and quantum mechanics, and engaged in research in the theory of weak interactions.

He joined the faculty of the Department of Physics at the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, in July, 1962.

He is a member of the American Physical Society, the Acoustical Society of America, the American Association of University Professors, and Sigma Xi.
